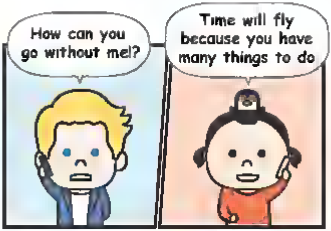
Stag-do

While I was taking a break from work, I went to Korea alone to see my family



I was concerned that I was leaving Mev alone but there were many things that Mev needed to do while I was away

One of the things was to go to o his friend, Alex's stag-do.

At this party the groom and his friends usually spend two or three days together and do lots of activities and drink a lot

As this party was not going to be very noughty like the porties in some western movies, I wasn't worried obout Mev going on the stag-do.

But after I saw what Greg, Alex's younger brother and best man hod plonned I storted to worry.

Because the activity was coasteering, that you jump into water from a high and rocky coastline.

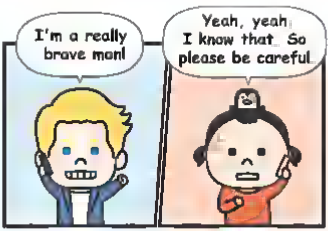
I saw the video that Mev sent and said this

Please don't jump from from the tallest cliff just to show off

I warned Mev.

Haha. Penguin
I'm a man who has jumped out of aeroplanes.

But as Mev used to love skydiving when he was in his early 20s, he didn't take her warning seriously.



I kept on asking Mev to be careful.

So he promised me that he would put his safety first.

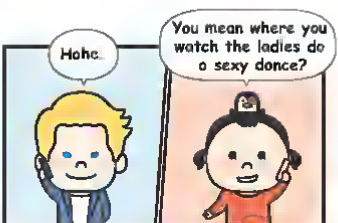
Then, ..

But at that moment,

then it must be OK for me to go to a pole dancing club
It's very safe!

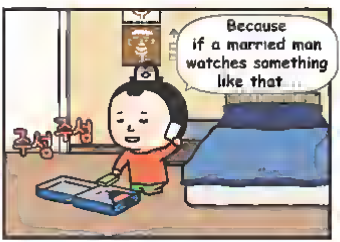
Mev said..



Hohe..
You mean where you watch the ladies do a sexy dance?

I said calmly.

Why?



Because if a married man watches something like that...
주섬 주섬

"....he won't be able to watch anything else."
